

This proposal would put RF energy from 2-80MHz on the power lines. Studies in Europe have shown significant interference problems.

Based on current problems resolving "ordinary" power line interference - this would appear to be a disaster waiting to happen.

This proposal would increase interference tremendously, and would be very hard to get rid of or solve, once implemented!

My use of amateur radio bands would be severely impaired.

Thank you.

Charles L Starke MD FACP

NX2T